ORDER OF WORSHIP

I will not die an unlived life.
I will not live in fear of falling or catching fire.
I choose to inhabit my days, to allow my living to open me
to make me less afraid, more accessible;
to loosen my heart until it becomes a wing,
a torch, a promise.
I choose to risk my significance,
to life so that which come to me as seed
goes to the next as blossom,
and that which came to me as blossom, goes on as fruit.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Exodus 3:1-7, 10-12, 13-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up." When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. Then the Lord said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, so come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to Moses, "I am who I am." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I am has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you': This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.'

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

PLAINSONG

Choir: Antiphon

Lead me in your truth, O LORD, and teach me.

Congregation: Antiphon

Show me your ways, O Lord,
and teach me your paths.

Lead me in your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
in you have I trusted all the day long.

Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love,
for they are from everlasting.

Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions;
remember me according to your love,
and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord.

Gracious and upright is the Lord;
therefore he teaches sinners in his way.

He guides the humble in doing right and teaches his way to the lowly.

All the paths of the Lord are love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 24:13-35

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.
People: Thanks be to God.

How Firm a Foundation

FOUNDATION

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (unison)

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which are saved, if we hold it fast; Christ Jesus died for our sins according to the scripture, he was buried, he was raised on the third day, and he appeared first to the women, then to Peter, and to the twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. We believe Jesus is the song of the living God. Jesus Christ is the first and the last, the beginning and the end; he is our Lord and our God. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

William H. Harris
(1883-1973)

Most glorious Lord of life, that on this day
didst make thy triumph over death and sin,
and having harrowed hell, didst bring away
captivity thence captive, us to win:

This joyous day, dear Lord, with joy begin,
and grant that we for whom thou diddest die,
being with thy dear blood clean washed from sin,
may live for ever in felicity:

And that thy love we weighing worthily,
may likewise love thee for the same again;
and for thy sake, who dost all grace supply,
with love may one another entertain;

So let us love, dear love, like as we ought;
love is the lesson which the Lord us taught.

THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

TODAY AT PCCH

PHILADELPHIA COVID UPDATE

This past Monday, the City of Philadelphia reinstated its mask mandate, based on an uptick in reported COVID cases. All along, we have made our decisions based on the city's protocols, and in order to be consistent with that approach, and to sustain our commitment to the most vulnerable in our community, we will return to our mask-wearing practices.

For Sunday worship, please wear a mask at all times, per the city's requirements. That includes children in Sunday school. At events where food is being served—like coffee hour or Melody and Comedy—you may be unmasked while seated and eating while wearing a mask when standing or moving around.

Your Return to Church Team is monitoring developments closely; if there are changes in the city's protocols, we will respond accordingly.

EASTER EGG HUNT SPECIAL PURPOSE

On Easter, twenty-five children hunted Easter eggs on the front lawn. Half of the 192 eggs were wooden eggs for a special purpose. Children were able to use the wooden eggs to support 1) the P.E.T.S program of ACCT Philly to help people struggling financially to care for their pets, 2) ACHIEVEability to help children and families live in better homes and get an education and 3) Tree Tenders to plant trees around Philadelphia to address climate change. The Social Witness Committee will be making contributions to each organization in recognition of the egg "votes" cast by the children—providing $70 (plus a $5 gift from church members) to P.E.T.S, giving $66 (plus a $10 gift) to ACHIEVEability, and sending $56 (plus a $5 gift) to the PA Horticultural Society for Tree Tenders active in Hunting Park. Nine wooden eggs are still on the loose, possibly in children's Easter baskets. In the spirit of hunting wooden eggs, those eggs were added to the gift to Tree Tenders.
