Sunday, October 2, 2022

10:00 a.m.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a longtime member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children age 3 and older depart from worship for church school.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10:00 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

Find more information about PCCH on page 13.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

O God the Creator, the three in one,
the creator of earth and moon and sun,
you have loved and protected us since time first begun.

For the earth is our mother, where all things grow,
and her valleys are green where the waters flow,
gentle deer and the eagle and the mighty buffalo.

We are one in the Spirit, in the great mystery,
walk together in beauty as we dwell in harmony,
bringing all of God's children into one community.

O God the Creator
—Elizabeth Haile and Cecil Corbett

the earth is not too low,
his praises there may grow.

Let all the world in every corner sing,
my God and King.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: We gather from the west to the east,
from the south to the north.

*HYMN 442

The Church's One Foundation

AURELIA

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Gracious Lord, creator of this universe, in your generosity you have given us a world of abundance and diversity,
yet we live guided by greed and selfishness.
In Christ, you made us siblings and intended for us to be united,
and yet we have built walls to separate us from those who are different from us.
You gave us wisdom and creativity and we have used those to trick each other.
You gave us laws to order our lives
and we have abused them.
We love war rather than strive for peace.
We ignore the poor and the weak and honor the rich and powerful.
In all this we have not lived according to your will.
Forgive us, merciful God.
In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

KYRIE ELEISON

The peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

Holy Spirit, grant us openness and give us understanding of what each one of us needs to receive through your word.
When we are facing a difficult choice
help us to choose the good path. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 42:5-7

Thus says God, the Lord who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it: I am the Lord, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the People, a light to the nations, to open the eyes that are blind to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

Children through seventh grade may process to the chapel for church school and will then return to sit with their families for communion.

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

SERMON

A Light to the Nations

Suzanne Duchesne

*HYMN 507

I Come with Joy

DOVE OF PEACE

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from The Belhar Confession

We believe that God is revealed as the one who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people...

That God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged...

That God calls the church to follow in this, for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry.

That God frees the prisoner and restores sight to the blind.

That God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger, helps orphans and widows.

That the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need.

That the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

Amen.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

David Willcocks
(1919-2015)

Love divine, all loves excelling, joy of heav'n, to earth come down, fix in us thy humble dwelling, all thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion, pure, unbounded love thou art.
Visit us with thy salvation; enter ev'ry trembling heart.

Come, Almighty, to deliver, let us all thy life receive.
Suddenly return, and never, nevermore they temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing, serve thee as thy hosts above, pray, and praise thee without ceasing, glory in thy perfect love.

Finish, then, thy new creation; true and spotless let us be.
Let us see thy great salvation perfectly restored in thee.
Changed from glory into glory, till in heav'n we take our place, till we cast our crowns before thee, lost in wonder, love and praise.

DOXOLOGY

LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Worship Note

The Belhar Confession has its roots in the struggle against apartheid in southern Africa. It was first drafted in 1982 by the Dutch Reformed Mission Church (DRMC); the DRMC formally adopted the Belhar Confession in 1986. Belhar's theological confrontation of the sin of racism has made possible reconciliation among Reformed churches in southern Africa and has aided the process of reconciliation within the nation of South Africa.

The Belhar Confession was adopted by the Reformed Church of America's 2009 General Synod and incorporated into the Book of Church Order as a doctrinal standard at the 2010 General Synod. The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) added the confession to its Book of Confessions in 2016, including it among its doctrinal standards.

CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

SUNDAY SCHOOL UPDATE

We offer classes for two different age groups—one for children ages 3 through 2nd grade (room 212) and another for children in grades 3 through 7 (room 201). Both rooms are directly adjacent to the chapel.

Our curriculum for both age groups, based on the Montessori method of learning, comes from Godly Play, using visual elements to hear Bible stories and then inviting children to express themselves by creating art or building and shaping things.

Godly Play is designed for children to both experience God and to find ways to express their faith experiences. The rhythm of Godly Play is more like worship than school and children are able to explore what they have experienced.

Our younger children from ages 3 to 2nd grade will be immersed in the stories of God's care for us, learning the ebb and flow of silence and interacting, of hearing and doing.

The older group, grades 3 to 7, will focus on the gift of creation and how we might think about the needs of the earth while hearing many ways in which people of the Bible carry out acts of love and care in challenging times.

Nursery care is available for children ages two and under and is staffed by two fully vaccinated, fully background-checked adults. Nursery workers will continue wearing masks.

JOSH HITCHENS, Haunted History of Philadelphia

As one of the most haunted cities in the nation, the City of Brotherly Love is a haven for unexplained phenomena. The specter of an innocent waiter murdered in 1783 is sometimes seen breaking dishes and smashing glasses at the City Tavern, once a meeting-house for George Washington, Paul Revere, and other patriots. Haunting footsteps are still heard among the cellblocks of Eastern State Penitentiary. Among the picturesque streets of Chestnut Hill sits Baleroy Mansion, whose plethora of supernatural hosts has earned the home the nickname of “the most haunted house in America.” Author and paranormal historian Josh Hitchens will discuss some of the chilling tales from Philly’s past and present that are featured in his book Haunted History of Philadelphia.

This is a fun and engaging way to get some fresh air and exercise while learning a new sport!

PART II “DO I STAY OR DO I GO”

Thursday, October 6, 11:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m., free

Presented in person for a limited number and recorded to be shared online next week. Part I explored the pros and cons of remaining at home as we age versus moving to a continuous care retirement community. Now we have made our decision and have decided we want to continue telling our own story according to our own priorities. We want to remain in our own home! Part II gives us the practical information to facilitate this decision. How will I find professionals to do yard work, snow removal, install grab bars in the shower and make other safety modifications to my home?

ABOUT PCCH

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHESTNUT HILL is a lively congregation that has been serving Philadelphia and beyond since 1852. We have been located on this site since 1950. We are a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

Our traditional worship service connects with contemporary approaches to questions of faith and life. We support a wide range of mission partners throughout the city and are home to a number of music groups.

Our membership is drawn from the city and surrounding communities. We aspire to be an inclusive community of faith in our work and worship together.
