We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

This is no time for a child to be born,
with the earth betrayed by war & hate and a comet slashing the sky to warn that time runs out & the sun burns late.

That was no time for a child to be born,
*in a land in the crushing grip of Rome;
honor & truth were trampled by scorn—
yet here did the Savior make his home.*

When is the time for love to be born?

The inn is full on the planet earth, and by a comet the sky is torn – yet love still takes the risk of birth.

—Madeleine L'Engle

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onwards and for evermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE LESSON

Titus 3:4-7

But when the goodness and loving-kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

Infant holy, infant lowly, for his bed a cattle stall;

Christ the babe is Lord of all.

GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 2:1-20

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.' And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favours!' When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.' So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

*LITANY

Leader: God of joy and celebration,

God of love and mercy,

God of peace and righteousness

People: We sing aloud and dance with the angels.

The ruler of all worlds, the shepherd of creation,

Jesus Christ has come among us.

Leader: Our Savior Christ has come,

not in power, not in might, but in the tenderness of love.

People: In this season of God with us we celebrate with the angels,

we are graced by the wonder of God's presence.

We are filled with the tenderness of Christ's love.

Leader: Love and faithfulness meet together, righteousness and peace kiss each other,

faithfulness springs forth from the earth.

People: God's faithfulness comes down from heaven.

This is God's promise: the Savior has been born and a new world begun.

Leader: This is the time we believe once more that perfect love casts out fear,
that generosity transforms scarcity into abundance,
that righteousness overcomes oppression with justice.

People: God's faithfulness comes down from heaven.

This is God's promise: the Savior has been born and a new world begun.

Leader: We are graced by Christ's presence and filled with God's love:

People: May we become bearers of God's light,
and go out to transform our world.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

(1886-1943)

When blossoms flowered 'mid the snows upon a winter night was born the child the Christmas Rose, the king of love and light the angels sang, the shepherds sang, the grateful earth rejoiced and at his blessed birth the stars their exultation voiced.

O Come let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

Again the heart with rapture glows to greet the holy night that gave the world it's Christmas Rose, it's king of love and light let every voice acclaim his name, he grateful chorus swell from paradise to earth he came that we with him might dwell.

O come let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

Ah! O come let us adore him, Christ, the Lord.

O come let us adore him, Christ, the Lord.

COVER ART Edward Burne-Jones, The Nativity [section], 1646, watercolor and bodycolor heightened with gold, on paper, the Huntington Library, Art Collections, and Botanical Gardens, San Marino, California. Public domain. A member of the Pre-Raphaelite movement in Britain, Edward Burne-Jones (1833–1898) rendered this work—which measures almost five feet high—in various dreamy shades of blue offset with touches of gold. In the lower portion of the painting, Mary, Joseph, and a small group of angels gaze at the infant Jesus in wonderment. A cave set in the background creates a sense of protection and quiet piety. The piece served as a preparatory design for another work: a stained-glass window in the cathedral of the artist’s hometown of Birmingham, England, but the artist designed a gilded frame for the work, clearly intending for it to be presented as a finished piece in its own right. Inspired by the art and culture that preceded the period of the great Renaissance artist Raphael (1483–1520), the Pre-Raphaelites emulated artists of the 1400s because they depicted nature more realistically than idealistically, and because their medieval craft guilds offered an alternative type of community to the industrialization of the mid-19th century.
