An inclusive community of faith

Sunday, February 4, 2024

10 a.m.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a long-time member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children who are 3 are encouraged to attend Godly Play but are welcome to remain in the nursery at parental discretion.

Children's "Praise Packs" to aid with worship participation are available in the narthex. Please return these after worship.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

Find more information about PCCH on page 12.

Gloria Festiva

Emily Crocker
(b. 1949)

Gloria in excelsis Deo,
Et in terra pax hominibus.
(Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace to all humankind.)

Let the nations now rejoice,
Let the earth resound with gladness.
Lift your praise with voices strong
And join the mighty throng.

Come all rejoice in the light,
And banish fear and sorrow.
O wondrous love, surround us,
And grant us peace eternal.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: What shall we return to the Lord for all the good God has bestowed upon us?

People: We will lift up the cup of salvation,
and call on the name of the Lord.

OLD HUNDREDTH

Please stand as you are able.*

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

I have deceived myself, dear Christ, I confess it; I have fallen from the heights to the depths. Well I know that delusion came because I wanted it. If I presume again, I'll fall again and fall to my undoing. Forgive my arrogance, and lift me up again by the grace of your salvation. It cannot be that I alone shall find you hard and unresponsive.

St. Gregory of Nazianzus (d. 390)

The peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

Creator God, as your Spirit once moved over the face of the deep,
shoving aside the darkness and chaos
to create light and beauty,
come now and move over our minds and hearts
as we hear your holy word. Amen

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Philippians 4:2-7

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

to shine on nations trapped in darkest night,
the glory of your people, and their light.

CLOSING VOLUNTARY

Music for a Festival

Calvin Hampton
(1938-1984)

COVER ART Thomas Gainsborough, The Painter's Daughters Chasing a Butterfly, ca. 1756, oil on canvas, National Gallery of Art, London. In this unfinished portrait Mary and Margaret, about five and six, are running hand-in-hand through a dark landscape in pursuit of a cabbage white butterfly, which has landed momentarily on a tall thistle. Margaret reaches out her hand for the butterfly, while Mary clutches her looped-up muslin apron like a net. The children's attempt to catch the elusive butterfly may be intended to suggest the fleeting nature of childhood. Born in Sudbury, Gainsborough (1727-1788) is considered one of the most important British artists of the second half of the 18th century. He painted quickly, and the works of his maturity are characterized by a light palette and easy strokes. Despite being a prolific portrait painter, Gainsborough gained greater satisfaction from his landscapes; later in his career, Gainsborough developed a type of portrait in which he integrated the sitter into the landscape. Painting his own children allowed Gainsborough the freedom to experiment with handling paint, which gives this portrait its remarkable spontaneity and freshness. The pinkish-brown ground is left clearly showing through Margaret's dress, her apron and her outstretched foot, while thick streaks of white suggest the movement of the fabric in the sunlight. The girls' faces are highly finished, but elsewhere Gainsborough's brushwork is loose and expressive.

REBECCA YAMIN

DIGGING IN THE CITY OF BROTHERLY LOVE STORIES FROM PHILADELPHIA ARCHAEOLOGY

Historic Philadelphia has long yielded archaeological treasures from its past. Excavations required by the National Historic Preservation Act have recovered pottery shards, pots, plates, coins, bones, and other artifacts relating to early life in the city. Rebecca will be here to discuss her book, Digging in the City of Brotherly Love and about how we continue to use archaeology to learn about and understand people from the past. She will talk about several major discoveries from recent finds including unmarked early eighteenth-century burial grounds, one of which associated with the first African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church, in the oldest part of the city; a nineteenth-century working-class neighborhood built along the path of what is now Route I-95 and was once home to Native American life; and the remains of two taverns found on the site of the current Museum of the American Revolution. She will also discuss the research and state-of-the-art techniques used to study these exciting discoveries.

Rebecca Yamin is a historical archaeologist specializing in urban archaeology and the former director of the Philadelphia branch office of John Milner Associates, Inc., a company that specialized in historic preservation and cultural resource management. She is the author of Archaeology at the Site of the Museum of the American Revolution (Temple), which won the 2022 James Deetz Book Prize given by the Society for Historical Archaeology, and Rediscovering Raritan Landing: An Adventure in New Jersey Archaeology.

Please bring a pair of scissors, some paper (old magazines, wrapping paper, newspaper, calendars etc.), and some form of adhesive such as glue or a glue stick. Instructor Rebecca Hoenig has been an active artist and teacher for over thirty years.

MINDFULNESS PRACTICE (registration required)

Tuesdays, Drop in, start anytime, 9:30-11 a.m., $12 per session

Many say “but it’s too hard”. Its essence is simply awareness of breathing and our sensations and thoughts. All that’s really required is a safe place, a few minutes (or more) and a willingness to stay with it (focused relaxation). The instructor and the group’s energy also usually make it easier. Simply come with a light, wholehearted willingness to participate, and a beginner’s mind. David Dimmack, M.Ed., has been practicing holistic healing and mindfulness meditation for over twenty-five years.
