WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a longtime member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children age 3 and older depart from worship for church school.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10:00 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

I didn't need to understand the hypostatic unity of the Trinity;
I just needed to turn my life over to whoever came up with redwood trees.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.' The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!'

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: 'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.' Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

Children through seventh grade depart for church school in the Strouse building and will return to sit with their families for communion. Joyful Noise last rehearsal of the season will take place in the chapel immediately following worship. Afterward, the children will be brought to their families in Widener Hall.

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

GOSPEL LESSON

John 1:1-5

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

ITALIAN HYMN

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

John Stainer
(1840-1901)

I saw the Lord, sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up,
and his train filled the temple.
Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings;
with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another,
Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.
And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried,
and the house was filled with smoke.

O Trinity! O Unity! Be present as we worship Thee,
And with the songs that angels sing unite the hymns of praise we bring.
Amen.

FLOWERS IN THE SANCTUARY are given to the glory of God and in honor of my family by Barbara Rubin.

COVER ART Andrei Rublev, The Trinity (or The Hospitality of Abraham), 15th century. The most famous work created by Rublev (late 1360s-late 1420s) and the most famous of all Russian icons, this work is widely regarded as one of the highest achievements of Russian art. The Trinity depicts the three angels who visited Abraham at the Oak of Mamre (Genesis 18: 1-8). The angels are seated at a table where sits a cup containing the head of a calf. The figures are arranged so that the lines of their bodies form a full circle; the middle angel and the one on the left bless the cup with a hand gesture, and the figures gaze into eternity in a state of motionless contemplation. In the background Rublev shows Abraham's house, a tree representing the Oak of Mamre, and a mountain seen as Mount Moriah. This rich symbolism is interpreted as an icon of the Holy Trinity—in 15th century Russia, this was seen as the embodiment of spiritual unity, peace, harmony, mutual love, and humility.

THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

UPCOMING EVENTS AT PCCH

A WARM WELCOME TO OUR NEW INTERIM PASTOR, the Rev. Dr. M. Craig Barnes. Craig has had a long and distinguished career as a pastor and educator, and his preaching, scholarship, and work on behalf of the denomination are known nationally. Craig served as the pastor of Christ Presbyterian Church in Madison, Wisconsin until 1992, when he became the pastor of the National Presbyterian Church in Washington D.C. In 2002 he became a chaired professor at Pittsburgh Seminary while also serving as the pastor of Shadyside Presbyterian Church where he is now pastor emeritus. In 2012, he was elected president of Princeton Theological Seminary and became the president emeritus in January 2023. We welcome Craig to our ministry.

WE WELCOME TO THE PULPIT this morning the Rev. "After graduation from Moore College of Art I was a textile designer in Philadelphia and New York studios. The P.A.B. Widener Traveling Fellowship awarded to me at graduation gave me four months of travel/study in Europe. Following years of commercial art I became interested in weaving, wood carving, and painting with oils and watercolor. At retirement I vowed to concentrate solely on watercolor painting. My interests range from florals to still-life arrangements to landscapes. Whatever the subject matter, color, mood, and composition are for me the most important elements in any painting."

CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

SUNDAY SCHOOL UPDATE

On Sunday mornings we normally offer classes for two different age groups—one for children ages 3 through 2nd grade (room 212) and another for children in grades 3 through 7 (room 201). Both rooms are directly adjacent to the chapel.

Our curriculum for both age groups, based on the Montessori method of learning, comes from Godly Play, using visual elements to hear Bible stories and then inviting children to express themselves by creating art or building and shaping things.

Attention all parents: we still need snacks and teacher volunteers.

Godly Play is designed for children to both experience God and to find ways to express their faith experiences. The rhythm of Godly Play is more like worship than school and children are able to explore what they have experienced.

Our younger children from ages 3 to 2nd grade will be immersed in the stories of God’s care for us, learning the ebb and flow of silence and interacting, of hearing and doing.

The older group, grades 3 to 7, will focus on the gift of creation and how we might think about the needs of the earth while hearing many ways in which people of the Bible carry out acts of love and care in challenging times.

Nursery care is available for children ages two and under and is staffed by two fully vaccinated, fully background-checked adults.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH MUSIC
