CHRIST THE KING SUNDAY

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a long-time member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children who are 3 are encouraged to attend Godly Play but are welcome to remain in the nursery at parental discretion.

Children's "Praise Packs" to aid with worship participation are available in the narthex. Please return these after worship.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

J. S. Bach
(1685-1750)

INTROIT

Christopher Tye
(1505-1573)

O come, ye servants of the Lord,
and praise his holy name.
From early morn to setting sun,
his might on earth proclaim.
His laws are just, and glad the heart:
he makes his mercies known.
Ye princes come, ye people too,
and bow before his throne.

CALL TO WORSHIP

when the true worshipers shall worship in spirit and truth.

ITALIAN HYMN

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

O God, forgive my fallen countenance and my soul grown dreary, as if I did not live in the mystery of thy salvation. Thou hast given so much to me, give one thing more—a grateful heart; not thankful when it pleases me, as if thy blessings had spare days, but such a heart whose pulse may be thy praise.

George Herbert

Please stand as you are able.*

SILENT CONFESSION

KYRIE ELEISON

Craig Phillips
(b. 1961)

mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy.

Choir: Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.

Everyone repeats the refrain.

The peace of Christ be with you.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

O Lord our God,
Your work is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path, give us grace to receive your truth in faith and love,
that we may be obedient to your will
and live always for your glory;
through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Luke 9:28-36

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALTER

Psalm 100

PLAINSONG

Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands;
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.

Know this: the Lord himself is God;
he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and call upon his name.

For the Lord is good;
his mercy is everlasting;
and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

*Children through 5th grade depart for church school in the Strouse building.
Parents please pick up your children in the Strouse building after Joyful Noise rehearsal.*

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

O Wondrous Sight, O Vision Fair

DEO GRACIAS

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

COVER ART Elisa Abeloff, To The Chief Musician, portrait of Darien Owen Griffin, oil on panel, 2023, Souls Shot Portrait Project, seventh Philadelphia exhibition

Darien Owen Griffin, Sr. was described by his mother, Dr. Pat Griffin (who goes by Dr. Pat or Dr. G.), as a fun-loving, thoughtful, kind young man whose smile was a warm glow. In this portrait I wanted to emphasize Darien's warmth and generosity. Sunflowers are symbols of generosity because of their many seeds. The three sunflowers growing up to the future represent his two sons and grandson (born January 5, 2022). Psalm 31 on the border comes from the part of his Bible that he had underlined. The diamond "halo" behind his head represents the Diamondbacks—and also his feeling that a man should be a king in his home.

THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

UPCOMING EVENTS AT PCCH

SUNDAY MORNING FELLOWSHIP

Everyone is encouraged to stay after worship for fellowship in Widener Hall.

GERMANTOWN AVENUE CRISIS MINISTRY THANK YOU

Thank you to all who contributed food and funds toward Germantown Avenue Crisis Ministry's Thanksgiving basket drive. We collected 68 bags of food and 14 chickens or turkeys, along with over $700 in cash contributions, from the congregation (including those who reached out to their workplaces) and from the PCCH preschool. You made a significant contribution toward over 150 baskets distributed to individuals and families in greater Germantown, which helped to brighten their Thanksgiving holiday.

Remember that the food need is ongoing—the GACM food cupboard provides groceries to 70-80 individuals and families per week! Food and cash donations can be brought up during the singing of the last hymn in worship on every first Sunday of the month, and are accepted throughout the month on the shelves in the reception room. For more information about the Ministry's work, go to crisisministry.org.

ACHIEVEability

Help brighten the holidays by providing gifts to children in West Philadelphia. This Advent season, PCCH has committed to providing gifts for 50 children through ACHIEVEability. Sign up to fulfill a child's wish list after church beginning today, Sunday, November 26, or reach out to Beth Vaccaro directly at bethnellvaccaro@gmail.com or 215-764-7213. All presents are to be wrapped and delivered to church no later than Sunday, December 10. Presents can be placed under the Christmas Tree in Widener Hall.

GERMANTOWN AVENUE CRISIS MINISTRY FOOD DONATIONS

First Sunday of the month food collection is next Sunday, December 3.

GACM provides food, fuel, clothing, housing and other emergency assistance to those who live in the Northwest section of Philadelphia. We collect food and cash donation for the GACM Food Cupboard on the first Sunday of every month. Please help with your donations of canned tuna and chicken, rice, pasta, peanut butter, canned vegetables and beans, hearty soups and stews and breakfast cereals. Regular sized products, not family size, packaged in non-glass containers are appreciated.

This program will focus on sleep and its effect on our bodies. We spend 1/3 of our lives asleep, so sleep is very significant. The National Academy of Medicine has declared lack of sleep today as a public health problem in America. Sleep deprivation can and does affect many of us as we age. The highlights of the program will focus on the general symptoms of a sleep problem and, most important, will offer tips on how to achieve a “good” night’s sleep.

HOW SABA KEPT SINGING—film & concert, followed by Q & A (registration required)

Friday, December 8, 1-3 p.m., free. Light refreshments will be served.

The award-winning documentary film How Saba Kept Singing shares the story of cantor, Holocaust survivor, and military veteran David S. Wisnia (age 93) who spends his later years travelling with his grandson and musical accompanist Avi Wisnia (age 38), sharing the story of how he survived the Holocaust through music which the duo perform together. For years, cantor Wisnia’s story centered around the belief that he survived Auschwitz mainly by using his beautiful singing voice to entertain his Nazi captors. These performances in the death camp gave him status as a “privileged prisoner.” However, when David takes his family back to Poland for one last performance, Avi starts asking questions and they discover that someone else had a hand in Saba’s survival. An uplifting story about music, faith, family, and resilience, proving love can grow and take hold in even the darkest of places. This film is directed by Sara Taksler (Tickling Giants), with Hillary Rodham Clinton and Chelsea Clinton, executive producers.

Avi Wisnia will be joining us to perform some of “Saba’s Songs” on piano and to lead a Q & A session following the film. Avi is an award-winning singer, songwriter, storyteller, and educator based in Philadelphia. He performs in venues around the world, including the Hammerstein Ballroom in New York and the Kennedy Center in D.C., with concert tours in Japan, Poland, and Brazil.
