An inclusive community of faith

Sunday, March 10, 2024

10 a.m.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a long-time member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children who are 3 are encouraged to attend Godly Play but are welcome to remain in the nursery at parental discretion.

Children's "Praise Packs" to aid with worship participation are available in the narthex. Please return these after worship.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

Lord, open our hearts and minds
by the power of your Holy Spirit,
that as the scriptures are read
and your Word is proclaimed
we may become more fully alive. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 53:1-6

Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account.

Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALTER

Psalm 121

ST. ANNE

Choir

I to the hills will lift my eyes;
from whence shall come my aid?
My help is from the Lord alone,
who heaven and earth has made.

All

God will not let your foot be moved,
your guardian never sleeps;
God's watchful and unslumbering care protects and safely keeps.

Choir

Your faithful keeper is the Lord,
your shelter and your shade;
'neath sun or moon, by day or night,
you shall not be afraid.

All

From evil God will keep you safe,
provide for all your need;
your going out, your coming in,
God will forever lead.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

*Children through 8th grade depart for church school in the Strouse building.
Joyful Noise will rehearse at 11:10 a.m. Youth Choir will rehearse at 11:45 a.m.
Parents, your children will be brought to you in Widener Hall after Joyful Noise.*

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

John 11:45-53

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him. But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what he had done. So the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council, and said, "What are we to do? This man is performing many signs. If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation." But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all! You do not understand that it is better for you to have one man die for the people than to have the whole nation destroyed." He did not say this on his own, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation, and not for the nation only, but to gather into one the dispersed children of God. So from that day on they planned to put him to death.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The High Cost of Living

Dr. Craig Barnes

*...it is better for you to have one man die for the people than to have the whole nation destroyed
John 11:50*

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Amen.

COVER ART curated by Rebecca Thornburgh

James Tissot, Annas and Caiaphas (Anne et Caïphe), 1886-1894, opaque watercolor over graphite on gray wove paper, Brooklyn Museum. Jacques Joseph Tissot (1836-1902), better known as James Tissot, was a French painter, illustrator, and caricaturist. Born to a drapery merchant and a milliner, he decided to pursue a career in art at a young age, coming to incorporate elements of realism, early Impressionism, and academic art into his work. He is best known for a variety of genre paintings of contemporary European high society produced during the peak of his career, which focused on the people and women's fashion of the Belle Époque and Victorian England, but he would also explore many medieval, biblical, and Japoniste subjects throughout his life. His career included work as a caricaturist for Vanity Fair under the pseudonym of Coïdé.

Sunday mornings before worship—a gentle reminder

THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

UPCOMING EVENTS AT PCCH

SECOND HOUR TODAY

Is Science Telling the Glory of God?

Sunday, March 10, 11:30 a.m., Harris Room

Drew Rick-Miller, executive director of Science for the Church, will lead a discussion on the relationship between science and Christian faith. The majority of Americans (59%—according to a 2015 Pew Research Center finding) believe science is often in conflict with religion. Where does that conflict come from and how can thoughtful believers hold both scientific and religious truths? Drew will address this tension and describe how this is an opportunity for the church.

PCCH WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

We meet on Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. in the Harris room. This Wednesday Dr. Russell Sullivan will be leading the discussion which will focus on the biblical text used for the upcoming Sunday sermon. The reading for Lent 5 on Wednesday, March 13 is John 12:1-8. All are welcome.

PCCH POKER NIGHT

Saturday, March 16, 7:00 p.m., at the home of Emily and Ray McCahery

Any questions, please contact the church office.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

During the season of Lent, our Sunday School children will be collecting money for One Great Hour of Sharing, which helps people around the world affected by hunger, disaster, and injustice. Children can help by bringing change and small bills to Sunday School to put in our collection jar (to remind them of “almsgiving”). Our collection will end on Easter Sunday during the Egg Hunt.

One Great Hour of Sharing envelopes will be placed in the pews on Palm Sunday, March 24, 2024 for adult giving opportunities.

HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE HIGH COFFEE

Save the date for our next high coffee on Easter Sunday, March 31. All are invited to attend. Any questions, please contact Sandy Connelly at sandyconnelly@gmail.com or Emily McCahery at emma.camp327@gmail.com.

SOCIAL WITNESS COMMITTEE

Opportunity to help residents of Dawn’s Place

Dawn’s Place has been at the forefront of providing direct services to women recovering from the trauma of sex trafficking and exploitation. Their year-long, residential program combines intensive therapy with a proven program providing adult survivors with the opportunity to learn how to become self-supporting and live independently. We have long supported Dawn’s Place financially, and we now have a more concrete way to help. When new residents arrive, a room is furnished for them. These furnishings are theirs to keep when they leave for either transitional housing or as they begin to live independently.

You can help to furnish a room for an incoming resident—just visit the Amazon wish list set up just for PCCH. When checking out, please use the shipping address that will populate for “Meaghan Patterson’s Gift Registry Address.”

AN EVENING OF MELODY & COMEDY SILENT AUCTION DONATIONS

Saturday, April 27—save the date and (please) donate!

Part of the evening's perennial fun is an appealing and eclectic array of marvelous items that you can take home with a winning bid in the silent auction. To make that possible, we'd love for you to donate something cool to add to this year's wonderful offering! Think jewelry, tickets (theater, concerts, sports events), gift baskets (themes like a garden starter, a movie night, a spring picnic), lessons, a dinner at a local restaurant, time at a vacation house, or works of art (photography, paintings, crafts). All of this benefits the exceptional Music & Arts programming here at PCCH. Fill out the online form to let us know what you can add to the auction (deadline April 19).

Questions? Rebecca Thornburgh, unbecca@gmail.com

The Music and Arts Committee hopes you'll add to the fun by participating—offering a performance or a donation—and especially by coming out to see the always excellent show and to bid on the always awesome auction. See you on April 27 for this super fun evening!

DR. JOEL SCHWARTZ

LAUGHTER IS THE BEST MEDICINE

Taking charge of our emotional wellbeing is just as important as diet and exercise. Studies show that laughing, smiling and being positive can lengthen your life span, can change your mental state from depressed to happy, can expand your thinking and creativity, can make you more productive at work and can change "stressed" to "de-stressed". Dr. Schwartz will discuss the physical and emotional benefits of humor, where to find humor and how to apply it in your life, your education, your work and your relationships. And maybe, just maybe, some of you will become immortal.

Joel Schwartz M.D is the Emeritus Chair of Psychiatry at Abington Memorial Hospital. He received his medical degree from Hahnemann University Hospital, and his psychiatric training at the Institute of Living, and Hahnemann University. He is the recipient of the Herman Belmont Award for Excellence in Teaching Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, has been on the "Top Docs" list of Philadelphia Magazine several times and has received the United States Air Force Commendation Medal during his tour of duty in the U.S. Air Force. He is a Distinguished Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association.

ABOUT PCCH

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHESTNUT HILL is a lively congregation that has been serving Philadelphia and beyond since 1852. We have been located on this site since 1950. We are a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

Our traditional worship service connects with contemporary approaches to questions of faith and life. We support a wide range of mission partners throughout the city and are home to a number of music groups.

Our membership is drawn from the city and surrounding communities. We aspire to be an inclusive community of faith in our work and worship together.
