TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a longtime member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children who are 3 are encouraged to attend Godly Play but are welcome to remain in the nursery at parental discretion.

Children's "Praise Packs" to aid with worship participation are available in the narthex. Please return these after worship.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

Find more information about PCCH on page 12.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Behold Lord, an empty vessel that needs to be filled. I am weak in faith; strengthen me. I am cold in love; warm me and make me fervent. Fill me with such hope that I may be a light to the house of my neighbor.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Matthew 6:25-34

‘Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, “What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?” For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.’

‘So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today’s trouble is enough for today.’

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALTER

Psalms 90:1-2, 13-17

John Goss
(1800-1880)

Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth,
or the land and the earth were born,
from age to age you are God.

Return, O Lord; how long will you tarry?
Be gracious to your servants.

Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning;
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us and the years in which we suffered adversity.

Show your servants your works and your splendor to their children.

May the graciousness of the Lord our God be upon us;
prosper the work of our hands;
prosper our handiwork.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

*Children through 8th grade depart for church school in the Strouse building.
Parents, your children will be brought to you in Widener Hall after Joyful Noise rehearsal.*

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Numbers 13:1-3, 25-33

The Lord said to Moses, 'Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites; from each of their ancestral tribes you shall send a man, every one a leader among them.' So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran, according to the command of the Lord, all of them leading men among the Israelites.

At the end of forty days they returned from spying out the land. And they came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the Israelites in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. And they told him, 'We came to the land to which you sent us; it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit. Yet the people who live in the land are strong, and the towns are fortified and very large; and besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there. The Amalekites live in the land of the Negeb; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live by the sea, and along the Jordan.'

But Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, 'Let us go up at once and occupy it, for we are well able to overcome it.' Then the men who had gone up with him said, 'We are not able to go up against this people, for they are stronger than we are.’ So they brought to the Israelites an unfavourable report of the land that they had spied out, saying, ‘The land that we have gone through as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants; and all the people that we saw in it are of great size. There we saw the Nephilim (the Anakites come from the Nephilim); and to ourselves we seemed like grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them.’

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need

RESIGNATION

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Philip Ledger
(1937-2012)

Loving Shepherd of thy sheep, keep thy lamb, in safety keep.
Nothing can thy power withstand. No one can pluck me from thy hand.

I would bless thee every day, gladly all thy will obey.
Like thy blessed ones above, happy in thy perfect love.

Loving Shepherd, ever near, teach thy lamb thy voice to hear.
Suffer not my steps to stray, from the straight and narrow way.

Where thou leadest I would go, walking in thy steps below, till before my Father's throne, I shall know as I am known.

*DOXOLOGY

COVER ART Jacques Joseph Tissot, The Grapes of Canaan, c. 1896-1902, gouache on board, the Brooklyn Museum. Better known as James, Tissot (1836-1902) was a French painter, illustrator, and caricaturist, incorporating elements of realism, early Impressionism, and academic art into his work. Best known for a variety of genre paintings of contemporary European high society produced during the peak of his career, he also explored many medieval, biblical, and Japoniste subjects throughout his life. His career included work as a caricaturist for Vanity Fair under the pseudonym of Coïdé. After a religious vision in 1885 led him to revive his catholic faith, he spent the remainder of his life making paintings about biblical events, returning to traditional, representational styles and narratives in his watercolors. In the mid-1890s Tissot traveled to the Middle East to make studies of its landscapes and cultures, which would come to distinguish his series from contemporary Biblical art through its “considerable archaeological exactitude” in striving for accuracy rather than religious emotion. His series of 365 gouache illustrations showing the life of Christ were shown to critical acclaim and enthusiastic audiences. Tissot spent the last years of his life working on paintings of subjects from the Old Testament.

DAVID YOUNG

THE BATTLES OF GERMANTOWN

Known as America's most historic neighborhood, the Germantown section of Philadelphia (established in 1683) has distinguished itself by using public history initiatives to forge community. Progressive programs about ethnic history, postwar urban planning, and civil rights have helped make historic preservation and public history meaningful. The Battles of Germantown considers what these efforts can tell us about public history's practice and purpose in the United States.

Author David Young, a neighborhood resident who worked at Germantown historic sites for decades, uses his practitioner's perspective to give examples of what he calls "effective public history." The Battles of Germantown shows how social history research proved that the neighborhood's Johnson House was a station on the Underground Railroad. These encounters have useful implications for addressing questions of race, history, and memory, as well as issues of urban planning and economic revitalization.

David W. Young recently retired from the Delaware Historical Society, where he was the Executive Director, to work on independent writing and public history projects. He previously served as Executive Director of Cliveden, a historic site of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and the Johnson House Historic Site, both located in the Germantown section of Philadelphia. He received his Ph.D. in history from Ohio State University.
